Opposition No. 91181975

OPPOSERS' MOTION TO SUSPEND PENDING SETTLEMENT

Opposers Joanna Villeneuve and Mélanie Villeneuve, by their undersigned counsel, hereby move that this proceeding be suspended pending the finalization of a settlement reached by the parties. As grounds for this motion, Opposers state that suspension would be appropriate to allow the parties time to effectuate an agreed settlement that requires an assignment of the opposed mark to a third-party (whereupon the opposition will be dismissed). Counsel sought assent to this motion and opposing counsel refused consent out of concern for the panel's prior order (of March 31, 2010) regarding further extensions of time. In light of the fact that the parties have signed an agreement resolving the underlying dispute, and merely need to coordinate the signing and delivery of certain papers among numerous parties in different countries, suspension is in the interest of justice and judicial economy.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Opposers respectfully request that the Board suspend the above-captioned proceeding to permit the parties time to complete and implement their settlement agreement.

Respectfully submitted,

JOANNA VILLENEUVE and
MÉLANIE VILLENEUVE,

By their Attorneys,
